THE JOHN HERRON ART INSTITUTE

Indianapolis, Indiana, January 27 to February 12, 1911

GEORGE HITCHCOCK, A.B., LL.B., A.N.A., was born in Providence, Rhode Island. He was a pupil of Lefebvre and Boulanger, in Paris, and of H. W. Mesdag, in Holland, the Düsseldorf Academy and Sutton Palmer, in England. He received an honorable mention for his first picture exhibited at the Paris Salon, 1887; gold medal American Art Association, New York, 1887; gold medal Paris Exposition, 1889; medal Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893; gold medals Berlin, Dresden, Vienna and Munich, 1900.

Mr. Hitchcock is a member of the Munich Secession, Paris Society of American Painters, Vienna Academy; Officer of Order of Franz Joseph of Austria. He is represented by works in the Art Institutes, Chicago, Savannah, Minneapolis, Providence, St. Louis, Buffalo, Dresden (Germany), Alkmaar, etc., and the Imperial Collection in Vienna, the Duke of Marlborough, the McCollough and other private collections in England and throughout America.

CECIL JAY'S earliest studies were at the Royal College of Art, South Kensington, later with Sir Hubert von Herkomer and George Hitchcock.

She obtained the Herkomer Scholarship, became a member of the Royal Miniature Society, and painted many notable persons in England. She is represented in the Liverpool Museum, by a group of water color panels on ivory entitled, "La Vie Paysanne." She also paints genre pictures and portraits in oils, and is a regular exhibitor at the Paris Salon, Royal Academy, and other exhibitions.

MR. and Mrs. Hitchcock have their studios in Paris and Zeeland, Holland, where nearly all the present exhibition has been painted.
